had a busy year

It can be said that every school year starts off at a busy pace when autumn arrives and the smell of burning leaves is strong in the air. This pace will not allow itself to be interrupted until the weather becomes very warm, the trees green, and the last day of school in June arrives. This year was certainly no exception. New classes, faces and friends, club initiations, and the start of the football season all demanded attention at the same time.

The freshmen, lost in their new environment, made friends with other members of their class who had the same feeling of bewilderment. These newly-formed friendships would last through all their high school days. The seniors, also in a state of bewilderment at what would follow Commencement, became closer to and fonder of the friends with whom they had associated for the last four years.

No sooner had everyone settled into the routine of school life, after a hectic summer, than that busy pace began, taking with it the first and second grading periods and the end of the Blue Raiders' football season.

Two of the Tolleston's main social events could also be seen flying by, the Honorary Colonel's Dance and the Starlight Fantasy--now pleasant memories for those who attended them. Class parties, the occasions when the class members were able to meet in a body and better acquaint themselves with one another, were held during the first semester too. The high school gym, where these parties were held, became unrecognizable as it took on the festive air that accompanies the decor of the parties. Again that busy pace took hold when the decoration committees scurried to finish decorating before the students arrived.

In what now seems like a matter of a few short days, the first semester had ended and the basketball season was well under way. The freshmen had earned their first high school credits and had begun to understand the meaning of high school life a little more clearly. The sophomores, having been in high school for one year, were seasoned veterans--feeling they knew all there was to know, and they took their first step at becoming upper classmen by ordering their class rings. The juniors found themselves planning for their first prom, to be held almost four months later; they began to take on the responsibilities and prestige of real upper classmen. They now held many important club offices and had a large representation on the different sports teams.

With the end of the basketball season, the fever of tournament time affected Tolleston even though the Blue Raiders' hopes were quelled quickly. That busy pace again began to move more quickly and the months seemed to pass like hours.

The seniors nervously awaited the announcement of their senior rankings and hoped they would be proud to display their rankings. They silently reminisced and marveled at how terribly fast that busy pace had gone. They wondered where these last four years had gone and why they had gone so quickly, especially this last year, 1957....

The prom was here, and then swiftly swept up in the arms of that busy pace and carried away, with only the wilted flower and limp ribbon of a week old corsage to bring glimmering memories to the mind of its owner. As that busy pace sped on its way toward the warm summer days, it brought in its wake Commencement Day--the day all high school students await. To some, it is the end of their formal education, to others, it is merely a stepping stone to more learning. In a few small hours, these seniors would become alumni.

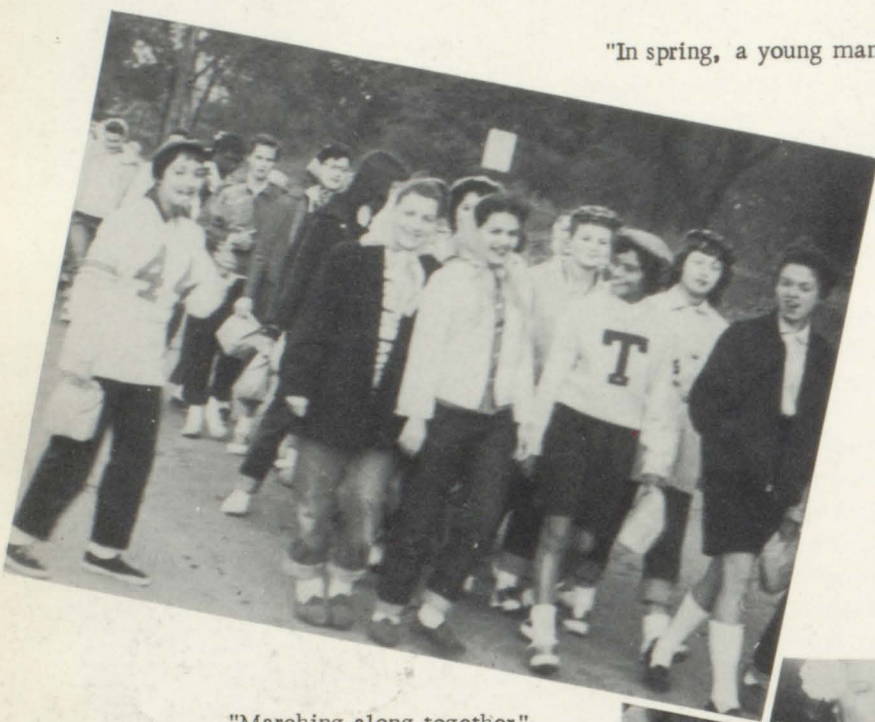

While being carried forward by that ever busy pace, the alumni looked back with mixed emotions through eyes already eager to seek out the future, and visualized the fall of 1957, when again autumn would arrive and the burning leaves would again send their aroma through the air.

Next year will again start off at the busy pace that has flown this year's senior class through the last four years. To take the place of the Class of '57 will be another freshman class who cannot yet comprehend what lies ahead of them--four of the happiest, most eventful years of their lives--their high school years. Each year they will be able to look back and say as we say now, "We've had a busy year."

"In spring, a young man's fancy."

Dad's Night was a joyous and memorable occasion for the Tolleston Blue Raiders this year. The Tolleston Dads' Night was held on September 21 against the Emerson Golden Tornado. This game was the high light of the entire football season for Tolleston, for it was the first time in history that Tolleston defeated Emerson.

Following the game, which took the place of the homecoming game, Tolleston's dads were honored at a banquet in the Tolleston School cafeteria. The Dari-Maid was the center of excitement for most of the fans after the victory. A bonfire was started in the middle of Fifteenth Avenue and there was dancing and singing until the wee hours of the morning.

As our busy year comes to an end, we, the students of Tolleston High School, would like to express our appreciation for the many things our teachers have done for us this year. They have taught more than the regular academic subjects by helping us with problems which did not pertain to school.

Often they went without thanks or any show of gratitude, but without them there would be no sponsors for our many clubs.

The Tolleston P.-T.A. constantly studies and is concerned about the needs of Tolleston School. Through membership dues and a stand at the Dad's Carnival, the P.-T.A. was able to purchase an audiometer. Proceeds from a bunco, held in November, bought a bicycle rack. Many guests such as

Dr. Alden H. Blankenship, Superintendent of Schools, and Josephine Wolfe, General Supervisor of Elementary Education, have been present at meetings. On this year's list of activities for the P.-T.A. were a discussion of National Education Week, a program of Christmas carols, a crafts and art exhibit, and a style show.

P.-T.A. is entertained at Christmastime by Mixed Chorus program.

Our band is supported by an able group of band members' parents, the Band Boosters. Their function is to provide uniforms and extra equipment for the Concert Band. Each year the Band Boosters sponsor a trip and a banquet for the band, as rewards for outstanding performances in concerts, parades, and at Commencement.

The Band Boosters build the morale of the band and encourage the band members to do their best by providing them with the better equipment that gives Tolleston a better band. The members of the band and Tolleston School in general are greatly indebted to this organization for all of its help.

This group, the Tolleston Dads' Club, helps support our sports teams by holding beneficial activities. This year, Dads' Club held a carnival, which proved very successful in raising funds. The teams and students of Tolleston are indeed grateful for the help of this organization.

The Student Council, the student-governing body of Tolleston, is composed of one representative from each high school homeroom class. The group, sponsored by Mr. E. Goforth, met every Tuesday at 2:30. During the past year Student Council sponsored the Social Club dances, which were held every Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 P.M. Membership cards were sold by Mr. Goforth and the Student Council members. The Council also decorated the annual Christmas tree which brightened the Christmas spirit of the students and the faculty. Every new club, initiation, or advertisement was approved by the council. The Student Council has proved to be a very important part of our school. One important member of the Student Council who was absent when pictures were taken is Vice-President Joe Kish.

A meeting was held every week. The new group found their year exceptionally busy as they sponsored such projects as Good Manners Week, Clean-up Week, and Citizenship Week. Beside the two dances held in the Tolleston gym, the Junior Council also sponsored six monthly dances, starting in January, at the American Legion Post 270.

The Tolleston High School girls have learned to balance and blend their voices in Mixed Chorus with Miss Charlotte Domroese directing. The girls were divided into groups which met as a daily class. Their schedule for the year consisted of many activities.

Besides the Christmas program for the P.-T. A., they also serenaded the students in the hall with Christmas carols. In December, they sponsored an informal dance. Spring activities were made up of the Concert, the Music Festival, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

band gives excellent

The clash of cymbals and the beat of a bass drum is heard in the distance. The Tolleston High School Band is entering the football field in their blue and white uniforms. The fanfare rings out into the cool September air, and the band is off again to start another season of gala bandshows which do much to boost the school's spirit. At the end of the season when the band members march off the field, there is much that lies ahead of them. The tone of a rather flat clarinet is heard coming from one of the practice rooms in the pavilion.

Practice is the key secret of a good band and plenty of it is done in preparation for the Mid-West Band Clinic, which is held in February. Quartets, ensembles, solos, and miscellaneous groups enter the contest every year and always manage to win more than their share of the honors. First chair members also participate in the City Music Festival, held in May. Overtures, symphonies, novelty numbers, and snappy marches are loved by all, and each year the Tolleston Band manages to provide the type and quality of music that makes the Annual Spring Concert a thrilling success. Also, in the spring, the snare drum beats a snappy cadence and the band gets in step to follow the course of community affairs. Among the many are the Community Chest Parade and the most exciting and colorful of all, the Memorial Day Parade. The bass drum takes on a symbolic beat as rather pompous music is played by the band for their last public performance, Commencement. This is, indeed, a sad moment for the members who remain, it marks the completion of a year of fine musicianship.

Newly formed at Tolleston this year was the Safe-Teen Club, sponsored by Coach Joe Vance. The main objective of the Safe-Teens is to encourage safe driving among the Tolleston teen-agers who have driver's licenses. The thirty odd members meet weekly to learn about and discuss safe driving methods. The club members each display Safe-Teen emblems on their cars to show their membership. It is hoped that this club will help our teen-agers to become better and safer drivers.

Under the sponsorship of the new sponsor, Miss Acheson, the G.A.A. is again one of the largest and best organized clubs at Tolleston. The annual activities of the members are: the hike to Miller, the Freshman Tea, the Christmas Spread, and the G.A.A. Banquet. This year approximately one hundred girls were initiated into the G.A.A. One day was set aside for the initiation. The girls came to school dressed as early 1900 bathing beauties. During the day they were to get the signatures of the officers, council members, and the initiation committee. The formal ceremony, which was held in the evening, was conducted by the officers, Miss Acheson, and the big sisters of the initiates, all of whom were upperclassmen.

On October 6, the girls met at school and began their hike to Miller. Each member who participated received 100 points toward their G.A.A. letter. The Freshman Tea was held to better acquaint the new members with the officers. At the annual Christmas Spread, each class decorated a corner of the Boys' Gym where they presented skits. The girls brought their lunches, a gift for the grab-bag and a can of food for the needy families in Gary. The school welfare department distributes these goods to needy families.

Tolleston' football team is losing a lot of senior lettermen. This will mean a big rebuilding job for Coach Vic Kay. The graduating lettermen are: Steve Blaney, Walter Kowalski, Joe Christy, Tom Brennan, John Steininger, John Brogno, Terry Brennan, Ed Mackulak, George Behnke, Louis Callaway, William Shivers, and Rex Atchison. The lettermen returning to the roster will be Larry Mangold, Harrison Richards, James Wright, and Tony Simola. Tolleston had two players that made the all-conference select group. They were halfback Harrison Richards, who is returning next year, and Louis Callaway, a guard and co-captain who is graduating. George Behnke, a tackle and senior letterman, was absent when the varsity pictures were taken. George was out most of the season because of illness. Tolleston students are looking forward to a successful season for Coach Kay and his 1957 roster.

That's one that didn't get away!

The Tolleston Blue Raiders started their season this year in the Football-O-Rama against Froebel. It was a game consisting of two eight-minute halves. Tolleston lost 13-0. Their regular schedule started September 7, against the Troopers of Wirt. The final score was 7-0. On September 14, Tolleston met the Roosevelt Panthers in a head-on collision with the Raiders coming out battered. Score: 27-0. The third game of the season marked history. Tolly defeated Emerson 13-12. This was a first. Tolleston ended up on the short end of a 19-0 score when they met Horace Mann. Another loss came as Tech tramped the Raiders 33-0. Valparaiso proved no match for Tolly as we owned them 19-6, a great moral victory. Tolly finished the "56" season with a record of three wins and six losses.

The Blue Raiders, primarily a young team this year, ended the season with 2 wins and 17 losses. These losses were very disheartening for the Raiders, but one consolation is that many of the losses were only by a few points. There are many underclassmen on the team who have gained much experience this year and Coach Joe Vance should have a fairly good team next year. The Raiders lack no spirit and the student body backs them all the way.

Tolleston can well be proud of its cheerleaders, who make it a practice to be perfectly timed when they do their routines. Of the five varsity members, four are seniors and will be graduating, leaving four vacancies to be filled. Judging from their performances, any reserves trying for varsity positions should not have much trouble. The cheerleaders have a new sponsor this year, Miss A. Acheson.

raiders hope for good season

Looks like a homerun for Louie!

The Blue Raider Baseball team ended up the 1956 season with a tie for first place with the Hammond High Wildcats, and they shared the honor of co-champions. The team's many victories were due largely to the very effective pitching of the now graduated John Jurasevich. The Raiders ended up the season with a conference record of eight wins and three losses! This year's team has not played its first game and it is hard to predict the outcome. In the last two years, Tolleston has either won or tied for the W.N.I.H.S.C. championship. We are hoping and trusting that this year will be much the same as previous years.
